

IDYLE

501 S Bloodworth Street, Raleigh NC
35.773912, -78.63341

As the first Net-Zero-Ready townhomes in Downtown Raleigh - IDYLE pioneers a new era of sustainable modernism. Designed by the award-winning Raleigh Architecture Company and delivered by local builders, the cutting-edge collection's high-impact, low-imprint performance raises the bar for new builds and is backed by Southern Energy Management. Boasting ten townhomes with 3-4 BR, 3.5 BA, and two-car parking across 2,700+ SQ FT, IDYLE balances modern metro energy + maintenance-free ease. Inside, an open-concept main level is primed for entertaining, while an oversized owner's retreat offers solace a winding staircase away. Above, luxury rooftops offer skyline views to fuel your fun & solar panels to fuel your high-tech home. IDYLE's NZE potential is customizable to a buyer's preference, offering upgradable eco-friendly features - Tesla Powerwall, EV-Ready, Solar Panels - to ebb your carbon footprint + erase most of the power bill. Plus, with walkable dining & shopping, commuters & influencers alike can trust their future-proofed home to deliver a premier Downtown lifestyle. Don't idle - be home by summer 2024.
