

A Bert King Masterpiece

14 St. Charles Place, Asheville, NC 28804
35.638937334853935, -82.56383387974303

Own a mid-century architectural masterpiece! This 1959 home was designed by famed architect Bert King and is situated on a 3-acre estate in the coveted Lakeview Park neighborhood. Preserved with tasteful updates, this residence stands one of the finest examples of mid-century architecture in the Southeast. Significant original features include wide wood paneling, site-built cabinetry, mosaic confetti countertops, lighting fixtures, slate flooring, telescoping patio doors, and much more. Discerningly designed updates include a spa-like primary bathroom that boasts artist-made concrete countertops, a steam shower, an oversized soaking tub, and heated floors. Bright and airy one-level plan with hidden features everywhere. Magnificent Mt Pisgah views from the yard and primary bath. Views from the sunken living room possible with limited clearing. Just a short stroll to Beaver Lake and the Bird Sanctuary, this is a spectacular home in one of Asheville’s finest neighborhoods..LINK TO AGENT’S LISTINGLINK TO ARCHITECT/BUILDER INFO
